

SATURDAY EVENING JUNE 30 1894.

"But woollens are manufactured in the North, and particularly in those New England commonwealths which were the seat of the anti-slavery agitation and which furnished so many thousands of loyal soldiers to put down the rebellion. Hence the woolen industry is marked out for vengeance and disaster."

So saith the New York Press, one of the leading republican newspapers. And it says so though it knows that the proposed tariff bill imposes a protective tariff tax of fifty per cent. on the products of the New England woolen manufacturers, while it removes the last cent of protection from the material of which those products are made, all of which is raised in the South and West. But the old bloody shirt has not yet lost its effect, and is being waved now in the North in order to force the South and West to continue to pay tribute to that section.

A white man on trial for outraging a grown woman in Illinois was run out of the court house last Tuesday by a gang of unmasked lynchers, who caught him and beat, kicked and stamped him to death. The Northern press passes the crime by as a simple news item. But when a brutal negro is taken out of an insecure jail in the South and hanged for outraging white female children and then murdering them, by men with such respect for the law that they mask themselves and commit their crime in the night, the press referred to opens wide its mouth and makes the circumambient air resound with its howls about the savage barbarity of the whole Southern people. The North is blind to its own defects, but keenly alive to those of the South. It always was, and always will be so.

There are so-called democratic newspapers, and more noticeable still, though not at all strange, Southern newspapers professing to be democratic, that oppose the imposition of an income tax, on the ground that it would infringe upon the rights of the States. But, what is really wonderful, is the fact that some of the very same identical newspapers opposed the repeal of the tax on State banks, though that tax unquestionably does infringe upon State rights, and besides, though its repeal was promised by the national democratic convention. But the coat of modern democracy is like Joseph's: the republicans have long since abandoned theirs, and now don't wear any at all, but go naked in all their original and acquired loathsomeness.

Now that the tariff bill has at last gotten out of the committee of the whole and been reported to the Senate, there is some reason to believe that the day for its return to the House will not be long delayed. If the prevailing warm weather shall continue, it is presumed that the conference committee, which will have the final hawk at it, will complete the job in short order. No matter what the bill may be, Congress may well thank its stars when it shall be rid of it.

It has finally come to pass that travelers can not complain of the rudeness and incivility of the employees of transportation lines without being shot down in their tracks by those against whom they complain. Certainly the accidental dangers of traveling in this country are great enough, without the additional danger resulting from murderously disposed employees, to whose care and protection the lines entrust the lives and property of their passengers.

The democrats of Arkansas don't dislike President Cleveland any more than do those of the other Southern States, but they have the manliness to express their feelings, which those of the others do not have. They may be wrong in censuring the President, but they certainly have the courage of their convictions.

WASHINGTON'S COACH FOUND.—The old four-horse coach which George Washington owned, and in which he rode, was discovered last Wednesday by Robert L. Brownfield, of Philadelphia, in the winter quarters of the Foreman show, at Legh Avenue and Edgemont street. He immediately purchased it, and on Thursday he called on Mayor Stuart and offered the city the use of it for the Fourth of July celebration. The purchase of the carriage is due to the efforts of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union, who have spent considerable money for relics and in fitting up Washington's home to appear as nearly as possible as it was when he left it. They recently secured the harness that his horses wore. Superintendent Harrison H. Dodge wrote to the Pennsylvania Commission of the World's Fair, saying that he had heard that the Commission had thought of purchasing the coach for the Fair. A. B. Farquhar received the letter and turned it over to Mr. Brownfield, who ascertained that the coach was for sale. He then went to the Foreman show in person. Although it has been for two years a prey to rats and roaches, the coach is in fairly good condition. July 5 Mr. Brownfield will present the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1894. The statement is cable from Salvador that a local judge has issued warrants for Gen. Ezeta and three other refugees on board the U. S. S. Bennington, charging them with eighteen assassinations, 300 arsons and numerous thefts and assaults. No Salvadoran consular would dare go aboard the Bennington with warrants as that ship is American territory, and it is considered absolutely certain that no U. S. judge would grant extradition papers on such charges.

Congressman Jones of Virginia is a veritable thorn in the side of the pension robbers. He blocks their game every Friday night as regularly as that night, which is given up to such pensions, comes around. Usually, as the democrats wont attend night sessions, he has to do so by demanding a quorum, but last night he beat them on a square vote, and forced them to call for a quorum in order to let the fraud they were attempting to enact keep its place on the calendar. The fraud was too patent for any but the rankest republicans to support.

This afternoon the Division Superintendent at Chicago telegraphed the postoffice department here that there had been no interference with the mail trains at Chicago and that they are moving out on regular time.

The superintendent of immigration, in response to an implied threat of the Pullman car strikers at Chicago, has instructed his subordinates there to be particular in excluding all Canadians who may come to take the strikers' places.

The Senate was not in session to-day and the proceedings of the House were not important. It is supposed the tariff bill will be passed by the Senate on Tuesday, and that both houses will adjourn for the 4th of July. The next important bill to come up will be the one providing for the election of Senators by the direct vote of the people.

A member of the republican committee of the first Virginia district, heretofore, says that Mr. Crawley of Northumberland county, a pension agent, is spoken of as the probable republican congressional nominee in that district, though he thinks the nomination would go to Judge Sener, if he would accept it.

Congressman Tyler of Virginia called at the Navy Department to-day and asked that the U. S. ship San Francisco have her repairs done at the Norfolk navy yard. He was informed that two U. S. vessels had been repaired there, and that Norfolk had been treated very liberally in that respect. Mr. Tyler and Senators Daniel and Hinton will do what they can toward having two of the new cruisers built at the Norfolk yard.

Congressman Meredith went to the government printing office to-day to see the public printer in behalf of some of his constituents, but Mr. Benedict was making up his annual account, and was invisible. It is understood that appointments at the government printing office hereafter will only be made upon the joint recommendation of the Representatives and Senators. There are already so many places in that office filled by people from Mr. Meredith's district that he thinks it doubtful if he can secure their retention, let alone get places for others.

Mr. F. A. Reed and Col. Anderson were at the Capitol to-day to remove the additional objections that the House military committee has raised to the bill giving the Mt. Vernon Railroad the right of way through Arlington. They think they have succeeded and that the bill will be reported next week.

Secretary Herbert issued an order to-day suspending all work in navy yards that is paid for out of appropriations for the increase of the navy. This is caused by the failure of Congress to pass a naval appropriation bill. Attorney General Olney agreeing with Secretary Herbert that the joint resolution extending current appropriations does not cover the matter.

The new revenue bill will require a large number of additional gaugers, and the internal revenue bureau is now busily engaged in making arrangements for their immediate appointment by the collectors, their confirmation by the Department to come when there is leisure.

The customs receipts this month were less than those of any month since the war.

The indications now are that the public buildings that have not already secured appropriations will not do so at this session of Congress.

Ennauld Madison, a negro man, who was employed in storing away the enumerators' books of the Census in the Interior Department this morning, fell a distance of one hundred feet to the tiling of the F street entrance to that department. There is a small aperture in the roof through which books are raised by means of a pulley. The colored man attempted to go up by holding on to the rope which was pulled by his fellow workman. When near the top the friction became so intense that he was compelled to release his hold. He fell to the tiling, alighting on his head and shoulders. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and it was thought that he was instantly killed, but he soon recovered consciousness and was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

Secretary Herbert has discovered that frauds have been perpetrated upon the government by the Penn Steel Works and, says he will prosecute the proprietors to the full extent of the law. He has certainly no intention to do so as when he fined Mr. Carnegie for the same offense, the President interfered and reduced the fine more than one-half.

At Washington during June the maximum temperature has been at 89 degrees or above on fifteen days and 90 degrees or above on ten days. The highest temperature was 97.5 degrees on the 24th. The highest temperature recorded during the summer of 1893 was 97.2 on July 26th. Although the latter part of the month has been extremely warm, the mean temperature for the whole month will be only about 4 degrees above the average, the first ten days having been considerably cooler than usual. One of the coolest days on record for this season of the year, with a minimum temperature of 46.3 degrees, occurred on the 6th. In connection with the high temperature, the month at Washington has also been an unusually dry one, only about an inch and a quarter of rain having fallen, or one-fourth of the usual amount for June.

On Tuesday night a highly respected English girl in the employment of Mrs. P. W. Harrington, in Warrenton, ran off with a trifling mulatto man. She is well educated and unusually refined looking.

According to dispatches from Berlin, special measures have been taken at the request of the Empress to guard the Kaiser against assassination.

Governor Patton to-day recalled the troops from Painesville, Pa.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The bill for the refunding to West Virginia of the direct tax will be taken up in the House next week.

Reports from the six principal western winter wheat growing States are very encouraging, and the outlook is for a yield above the average.

M. Auguste Laurent Burdeau has declined the task of forming a French cabinet. President Casimir-Perier has asked M. Dupuy to reconsider his decision to resign.

At Belfast, Ireland, recently Daniel Sheehan, a cook, confessed while dying that he and his brother, who is now in prison, attempted to blow up the Houses of Parliament in 1885.

Mary A. Gallagher, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Wm. H. Gallagher, of Baltimore, was drowned yesterday evening in Spring Gardens while trying to save her sister, Florence Gallagher, aged twelve years.

The town of Sulphur Springs, thirty-two miles east of Greenville, Tex., has been in a high state of excitement over the murder of Mrs. Al. Waltz and the mortal shooting of her husband by John Williams, a negro. He was lynched.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Dixon gave notice of an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill which provides for the employment of crews at the life saving stations from August 1 to May 31 and increases the appropriation for this service from $1,083,000 to $1,249,000.

In Washington yesterday the grand jury returned indictments against Elverton R. Chapman and John W. McCartney, two of the recalcitrant witnesses who refused to answer the questions of the committee of the Senate appointed to investigate alleged bribery in connection with the sugar schedule.

M. H. Bickley, president; Frederick Balt, superintendent, and James T. Anderson, of the Penn Steel Casting and Machine Company, were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Myers in Philadelphia yesterday, charged with conspiracy in perpetrating frauds upon the U. S. government in furnishing steel gun castings.

In the George's Creek mining region the strike is at an end. The miners at the lower end of the valley resumed work yesterday and the unemployed miners were generally applied for work. Some were rejected. Superintendent Randolph said he had no orders to resume work in Ocean mine upon which one thousand people are dependent for a living.

The President sent to the Senate yesterday a report of Secretary Gresham stating that no representations have been made to the Department of State touching any proposed action looking to the exclusion of agricultural products of the United States by way of retaliation for the proposed imposition by the United States of a duty upon sugar.

Fire broke out in Woodruff's stores, Brooklyn, near the water front, yesterday afternoon. The fire was apparently extinguished, but last night it broke out again. A wall fell, burying three firemen, two of whom were killed. The burned buildings were valued at $75,000, while the value of their contents was $1,000,000, making a total loss of $1,075,000.

With the exception of a short time, the day in the House yesterday was consumed by a filibuster over the contested election case of Watson against Black, of the Tenth Georgia district. The filibuster was led by Representative Pence (pop.), who contested every inch of ground, even after the aid of the committee on rules had been invoked. The tangle was finally straightened out, and the resolution of the committee on elections declaring Mr. Black elected was agreed to, only the populists dissenting.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Grand Secretary of Masons, Wm. B. Isaacs, continues to improve but he is still confined to his bed. His physician hopes to have him up and about next week.

Mr. Chas. G. Howison died at the home of Mr. Jas. M. Barbee, in Prince William county, last Saturday, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis which he sustained a few days before his death.

Mr. John Purcell, head of the wholesale drug house of Purcell, Ladd & Co., of Richmond, died yesterday, aged 70. He was an intimate and life-long friend of Cardinal Gibbons and was the oldest wholesale druggist in the South.

The Tariff Bill.

A consideration of the tariff bill, which was begun by the Senate in the committee of the whole on April 2, was at last completed yesterday, and the bill was favorably reported to the Senate as amended at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The action was taken as without a division, being a matter of routine, when, in response to the invitation of the Vice President, no more amendments were offered in committee. As a matter of fact, there are quite a number of important amendments still to be considered, but so anxious were the managers of the bill to have the measure reported that they urged all Senators to agree that further changes be considered in the Senate. This request was agreed to without friction, and then an adjournment was taken until Monday, when the bill, as it has been amended, will have been printed and ready for its final consideration.

The main feature of the day was the debate on the section providing for the repeal of the reciprocity provision of the McKinley law. This section was amended so as to provide continuation of the existing reciprocity arrangements, except where inconsistent with other provisions of the bill.

An attempt was made by Mr. Peffer to have a new section added imposing a tax of $50 on all immigrants coming to the United States, but there was a general indisposition to place immigration legislation in the tariff bill, and it was voted down, as was an amendment of Mr. Gallinger looking to compelling trade concessions from Canada. Before the bill was reported a series of minor amendments, to which there was no objection, were offered by Mr. Jones and agreed to.

The democratic and republican leaders in the Senate have made an agreement to vote upon the final passage of the tariff bill Tuesday next. Chairman Wilson, of the House of Representatives' ways and means committee, is expected to make a fight against the protective features of the Senate tariff when the measure is sent to the conference committee.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 30.

SENATE.

The Senate was not in session to-day.

HOUSE.

Mr. Robbins's request for the consideration of the bill repealing the laws relative to shipping commissioners met with objection and the bill went over.

Mr. Terry called up a private pension bill, but a demand was made for the regular order, and the committees were called. When the committee on post-offices and postroads was reached Mr. Henderson called up the bill to readjust the salary and allowances of postmasters at Guthrie, Oklahoma, and Kingfisher, Oklahoma. The bill proposes to allow them the salary of a Presidential office, according to their receipts.

The merits of the measure being then discussed Mr. McMillin moved to strike out the enacting clause. Defeated. The point of no quorum was then made, and the vote by tellers showed no quorum present. As the morning hour had expired the bill was withdrawn.

Twenty-nine private pension bills and bills removing the charge of desertion were passed by the House.

The Senate amendments to the House bill fixing and defining the units of electrical measurement were concurred in and at 2:30 o'clock the House adjourned till Monday.

CLOSING EXERCISES.—The closing exercises of the Potomac Academy took place yesterday at the school room on Washington street. The award of the certificates is based upon the standing at the daily recitations throughout the session, except that in a few branches written examinations are held. The following are the names of those who obtained first division certificates of distinction, their average for the session being up to the standard, viz: 80 per cent., except in English branches, in which the standard is 85 per cent.

English Branches—G. A. Abbott, E. S. Baker, J. O. Bruin, A. H. Bryant, R. C. Catts, R. J. Dainierfeld, J. H. E. Gentry, Wm. Herbert, A. Herbert, M. H. Gentry, J. W. May, F. J. Rawlinson, G. Thomas, D. C. Walsh, J. R. Zimmerman, Jr., and W. H. Fawcett.

French—D. C. Walsh.

Latin—G. A. Abbott, S. R. Catts, Wm. Herbert, F. J. Rawlinson, D. C. Walsh and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

Arithmetic—G. A. Abbott, J. O. Bruin, A. H. Bryant, R. J. Dainierfeld, J. H. E. Gentry, Wm. Herbert, J. W. May, F. J. Rawlinson and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

Algebra—G. A. Abbott, L. D. Bridges, A. H. Bryant, S. R. Catts, R. J. Dainierfeld, J. H. E. Gentry, Wm. Herbert, J. W. May, F. J. Rawlinson and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

Geometry and Trigonometry—J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

Trigonometry and Analytic Geometry—W. H. Fawcett.

Physic, junior class—A. P. Brookes, and M. H. Janney; Senior class, W. H. Fawcett, F. J. Rawlinson, and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

Typewriting—A. H. Bryant, L. D. Bridges, and J. S. B. Dainierfeld.

Pennamanship—J. O. Bruin, S. R. Catts, R. J. Dainierfeld, J. H. E. Gentry, Wm. Herbert, J. W. May, F. J. Rawlinson, G. Thomas, D. C. Walsh and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

The following, having no demerits, received certificates of department: J. O. Bruin, S. R. Catts, W. H. Fawcett, J. F. Grigg, M. H. Janney, J. W. May, L. Powell, F. J. Rawlinson, W. O. Gort, and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr.

A certificate was awarded to E. S. Baker for punctual attendance during the session.

Diplomas were awarded to G. M. Abbott, A. H. Bryant, S. R. Catts, G. Thomas, R. J. Dainierfeld, J. Wm. Herbert, D. C. Walsh, and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr., as graduates in English branches, they having reached the required standard (75 per cent) at special written examinations.

Special certificates were awarded to F. J. Rawlinson and J. R. Zimmerman, Jr., they having obtained first division certificates in all their studies, and no demerits.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Grace Church. About three years ago Mr. A. A. Pruden became connected with the work in Grace Church and since then has spent all of the time he could spare from his duties at the Seminary in earnest, faithful efforts to uphold the church. We scarce know how it came about but he just seemed to drop right into the hearts of the people: visiting them in sickness and in health and possessed of a pleasant, genial manner he has so won their hearts that there is not a household connected with the church in which the name of Pruden is not spoken with tenderness, whilst in very many he is accorded a welcome that is only given to the nearest and dearest of friends. It was small wonder, then, that as the time drew nigh for his ordination and the question went round "Are you going out to see Mr. Pruden ordained?" the answer was generally "Oh! yes!"

Nearly one-half of the entire congregation, the rector among them, were present yesterday at the ordination services and they were very proud of their new-made deacon, vested in cassock, cotts and stole, gifts of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and King's Daughters of Grace Church.

As an appropriate close of his labors as a layman and as a commencement of his work as one of God's ministers he has been invited by the rector of Grace Church, Rev. C. E. Ball, to deliver his first sermon in the church that he has labored so faithfully in, and will do so to-morrow (Sunday) at the usual hour for evening prayer.

BEVERLY WATER COMPANY.—A meeting of bondholders of the Beverly Water Company was held yesterday at the Mercantile Trust and Deposit Company, Baltimore, at which it was determined that at the sale ordered for the 12th of July, if necessary to protect their interests, the property would be bought in. The sale is to be made under a clause of the first mortgage, under which six per cent. bonds were issued to the extent of $25,000. The company defaulted in interest some time ago, and the mortgage was foreclosed.

Summer Tours.

The illustrated book published by the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad, entitled "Routes and Rates for Summer Tours" contains more than 150 illustrations and gives a list of 300 hotels, and routes and rates for more than 600 combination summer excursion tickets. It will be sent to any address upon receipt of ten cents for postage, by applying to Theodore Butterfield, General Passenger Agent, Syracuse, N. Y.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Foreign News.

LONDON, June 30.—The formal opening of the Tower Bridge, London's latest addition to her bridges across the Thames, took place this morning with ceremonies worthy of the occasion. The Prince and Princess of Wales performed the ceremony of inauguration amid the acclamations and rejoicings of a brilliant and distinguished company.

ROME, June 30.—A most animated anti-anarchist campaign has been inaugurated by the police in Italy and as a result many letters of a menacing character have been received by King Humbert, Premier Crispi and other prominent persons.

PARIS, June 30.—The civil tribunal yesterday ratified the agreement by which a new company, having a capital of 60,000,000 francs, is granted a concession which enables them to complete the Panama canal.

LIEGE, June 30.—Six cases of a disease described as cholera have been reported here. One death from the disease has occurred.

PARIS, June 30.—A dispatch from Marseilles this morning announces that a soldier detained in the military prison at that place, upon hearing of the assassination of the President, gave the authorities full details concerning the plot which was hatched at Certe and also furnished the names of seven anarchists, who, after the executions of Vaillant and Henri, drew lots in order to decide which of them was to kill M. Carnot. The lot fell to Santo Cesario, which now seems to be the real name of the assassin, the mistake in the inversion of his name having resulted from the Italian custom of writing the family name first. Cesario is described as having been "wild with joy" when he found that he had been selected to commit the murder.

PARIS, June 30.—Throughout the city and all over France preparations are about completed for the funeral to-morrow of President Carnot. The people have determined to make the funeral a demonstration against anarchy, as well as a tribute of deep respect to the dead chief magistrate. So far as the political situation is concerned it seems to be finally determined that M. Bourdeau, who was offered the premiership, and who persisted in declining that honor, has decided to accept the presidency of the Chamber of Deputies. It is asserted on M. Bourdeau's behalf that he was obliged, by the advice of his physicians, to relinquish the task of forming a cabinet. On the other hand, M. Dupuy, after consulting with his colleagues, informed M. Casimir-Perier this morning that he consented to remain premier. It is believed, however, that his cabinet will be reorganized.

The Railroad Strike.

CHICAGO, June 30.—The boycott on Pullman cars grows more serious every hour. The militia companies in the southern part of the State have been ordered to make ready for duty. Three passenger trains were held up last night before they could get fairly out of Chicago and the Pullman cars cut off. The officials, however, refused to let the Cincinnati train go out without sleepers. Shortly after 3 a. m. the second section, carrying mail, gathered up the Pullmans and before the strikers knew what was up the train rushed eastward at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

The Pullman conductor on the Pennsylvania's New York limited, which arrived a few minutes late, said he saw no evidence of the strike from the time he left New York city until he reached 16th street in Chicago.

EMPORIA, Kas., June 30.—A large force of deputy United States marshals are in possession of the Santa Fe depot here and passenger trains are passing both ways with the regular Pullman cars attached.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 30.—On the telegraphic orders of Monon officials U. S. Commissioner Van Buren at Indianapolis yesterday issued warrants for three members of the A. R. U. who were considered the ringleaders of the stopping.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 30.—A meeting of the A. R. U. men in this city this morning decided to call out the men at the Minneapolis railway transfer. If these men go out it will result in shutting down all the flour mills in this city.

CHICAGO, June 30.—Advices from various points in the West and Northwest tell of further tie-ups on the railroads. Men are striking on many more roads while others refuse to haul Pullman cars. In some sections the men in the shops are striking in sympathy with the Pullman boycott. Engineers, conductors, firemen and brakemen are being "called out" on many roads and sometimes trains are derailed when ready to start out. Trouble is expected and the sheriffs are being called on to protect railroad property. Trains have been stopped by the strikers and cars damaged.

In Chicago the situation is grave indeed. After to-day there is danger of the closing down of every important industry in the city and in addition many of the mercantile concerns will be seriously handicapped. To-day the prices of provisions of every kind have jumped to astonishing figures and it is predicted that by next Monday the great commission houses on South Water street will be forced to at least a partial suspension on account of the inability to receive consignments.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy R. R. to-day issued a notice to the employees of every department saying: "One and all of our employees are given distinctly to understand that any man refusing to do the duty for which he is ## hired will be discharged at once."

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 30.—The railroads running north out of Memphis have practically suspended freight traffic. Fruit and vegetable growers will be heavy losers.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 30.—Superintendent Roarback, of the Santa Fe has issued a notice to the strikers that if they do not return by noon to-day they may consider themselves discharged. None of the other roads is affected here.

A Horrible Discovery.

BUFFALO, June 30.—Upon opening the door of one of the bed-rooms of a boarding house on Elliott street this morning the dead body of a woman was found under the bed with a piece of petticoat around the throat that gave evidence of her having been strangled but a few hours before. The woman is not known, except by the name of Pearl Ross and the house keeper says she engaged a room last night. An unknown man who accompanied her to the house is believed to have been the murderer. The police have only a fair description of him. Some time during the night the man left the house unobserved.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The buildings of the Viaduct Manufacturing Company at Relay station, nine miles from Baltimore, were struck by lightning this morning and burned to the ground. The company manufactures electrical supplies and employed 125 men. The loss will probably reach $75,000.

In Chicago to-day Judge Payne granted a stay of execution in the case of the assassin Prondorast, because of the present hearing. Prondorast was sentenced to be hanged on July 2, but the court announced that the execution of the sentence will be deferred until the present insanity hearing is concluded.

Mabel, an invalid daughter of Rev. Dr. John W. Teal, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at Elizabeth, N. J., died this morning and a few minutes later her father expired. On Tuesday an elder daughter, Florence died. Dr. Teal's sudden death is attributed to grief and exhaustion.

The Secretary of the Royal Largs Yacht Club has been notified that it will be impossible to get the American yacht Vigilant ready to take part in the opening races on Tuesday.

Ersk D. Brader, who decamped from Scranton, Pa., three weeks ago, after victimizing a number of business men, returned to his home last night and shot himself through the heart.
